Presidential Posting

Mel Maalouf, President

The first presidential posting of a first term is like an inaugural address. I suppose this is the inaugural posting, eh? How shall we proceed?

It is an exciting year to be leading. We have a new ride to promote that looks to have wheels, pun intended! There are many new faces that are popping in to rides, events and parties - I am looking forward to new opportunities to get to know more of you.

So what should you expect from me? I intend to facilitate what the club wants to do. We are a very diverse group of riders. There are some of us that race or just ride for the accomplishment. We have some ultra-endurance riders and many riders who ride for fitness and the social aspects. Many of us ride both mountain bikes and road bikes and we have events and rides that represent those interests. What will the club look like and do this year? I will say it will look like what the membership will make it this year. We can't rely on the board and select few to do most of the work.

There have been comments that we need a weekly standard ride. I say, yes, you should do that. There are many that want a mountain bike ride/race series, I say yes, we need someone to do that. We need someone to lead long rides. We need slower, casual rides that stop for coffee and chocolate; I may lead those, but would need some help.

Often we see many of the same faces (and some new faces) at most events. We need more people to make our rides and events successful. In an effort to see what you want, you should expect to see more communication, more surveys and other media opportunities to be a community. To start, we are on Facebook and aacc@yahoogroups.com as forums to communicate day to day with one another.

I see our club and our board serving the membership, but also the greater cycling community. I am proud to say that our advocacy has stepped up and we see opportunities for safe bike routes and other trails opening up before us. We serve Alpine County, South Lake Tahoe, Carson City and Carson Valley. When I see riders out on our roads I often ask myself why aren't they club members? Maybe they are and we don't recognize one another. Which means that we are not as close a community as we should be.

I look forward to seeing how we, the board, can serve you and our greater community.

Past President Posting

Pete Costa, Past President

I would like to thank each and every person who has been a part of the Alta Alpina Cycling Club this past year. I really think 2009 was a success, maybe, because I survived to hand the ceremonial “wrench” over to the new president, Mel Maalouf. But, more likely because I had a front row seat in watching you ride in the Gardnerville 100, race on Thursday nights, volunteer for the Alta Alpina Challenge and the Pinenut Cracker and the Carson Valley Classic, attend meetings on behalf of other cyclists and the club, promote our sport and club, and wear the Alta Alpina jersey. By membership standards, this is a “small” club. But if you look at the diversity of our membership, the things we do, the events we produce and our reputation in the western US, Alta Alpina Cycling Club is a “BIG” club. That can’t happen without great people. I have met and spoken to a lot of other club’s members and officers in the last year about AACC. Their reaction just reinforces why I joined and continue to support this club. Together we accomplished some great things and have set a foundation to build on for the future. Do you remember the buzz you heard and felt after the Alta Alpina Challenge? I do. Mel is eager to carry that feeling and momentum into 2010. 2010 could be a great year. Great people do great things. Our 2010 Spring Membership Party is April 19th, look for the location soon. Bring a friend. I’ll see you there.

Bike Spokesman: Highway 395 Widening Project

Tim Rowe, Bike Advocacy

A public meeting was held on a cold December night to discuss the final design for the construction on Highway 395 from Jacks Valley Road to 0.11 miles north of Old Clear Creek Road in Douglas County/ Carson City. Most of the attendees were NDOT/FHWA employees or contractors, it seemed. The project will include addition of a third northbound lane in that reach. Also included are intersection improvements at Topsy Lane and Old Clear Creek & Lupin Drive. The added third northbound lane will provide a missing link that will complete the six-lane section of highway from Jacks Valley to Fairview Drive.

I represented the bicycle community along with Dan Allison of Carson City’s Muscle Powered group. I wanted to make sure the widening project did not reduce or eliminate the existing wide shoulders in this area. I stressed to the NDOT and FHWA staff present that this is a very important section to bicyclists as it is the ONLY paved link between Douglas County and Carson City. Many bicyclists, myself included, use this section for riding to work and for recreation. I found out that the widening project would still maintain a wide shoulder, just a little further to the east.

One problem with the construction starting this April is that, according to the detailed plans, the two northbound highway lanes would be moved over slightly and K-concrete barriers will be put along the right lane to make room for construction: it appeared that the northbound shoulder would be eliminated and the northbound bike lane would not exist during the construction period. I stated that this was NOT at all acceptable to bicyclists and pedestrians, as there is no other route between Douglas County and Carson City. The NDOT Engineer agreed and said that they could possibly change the plans and move the K barrier over as far as possible, 4 feet, and give us a narrow lane. This will be limited and care will have to be used when riding or walking in this area, but this is better than nothing. I suggested that maybe they also lower the speed in the construction area and he stated that this normally already occurs.

The intersection at Lupin (east side) will be improved with this project as they will be adding a northbound right-turn lane. The project also will make improvements to the Lupin/Old Clear Creek offset intersection, which is needed. But they can only do so much as there is very limited right-of-way space available without taking homes. Retaining walls will have to be built between the road and trailer park. The road there will still have a limited bike lane as the Lupin Drive available road width is narrow. We just wanted to make sure they think of bicyclists and pedestrians as much as they can. Note that this portion of the project was originally designed for the long awaited phase 2B of the Carson Freeway (I-580) and was also discussed during the Carson Freeway meetings a few years ago.

Bicycle Friendly Community for Carson City

Tim Rowe, Bike Advocacy

Carson City Muscle Powered, Citizens for a Walkable and Bikeable Carson City, and other supporting bicycling groups, have formed a committee and embarked on a project to make Carson City a Bicycle Friendly Community (BFC). A BFC is a designation awarded by the League of American Bicyclists (LAB) to communities that have proven to possess safe accommodations for cycling, and that encourage people to bike for transportation and recreation. A recent committee meeting was held on January 6, 2010 at Dopplegangers in Carson City. I represent Alta Alpina on this committee.

Currently, there are no official Bicycle Friendly Communities in Nevada. In fact, Nevada is one of the only western states that does not have a community with this designation! It is the committee's opinion that Carson City has what it takes to become Nevada's first official BFC. The BFC application will provide a comprehensive picture of the community by asking questions across five categories often referred to as the "Five E's": Engineering, Education, Encouragement, Enforcement, and Evaluation & Planning. A community must demonstrate achievements in these areas in order to be considered for an award. The nearest BFC community is nearby South Lake Tahoe, which just won its 4-year renewal. Communities with more significant achievements in these areas receive superior awards, like Davis, California and Portland, Oregon.

More information about Bicycle Friendly Communities can be found on the League of American Bicyclists' (LAB) website at:
